

Holidays in the Hill City

A Group Itinerary * Second weekend in December

Lynchburg, Virginia is the perfect destination to get in the holiday spirit. Local attractions are dressed up for the season and our shops and boutiques offer unique gifts made by local artisans. Here is our suggestion on the best way to enjoy the Holidays in the Hill City:

FRIDAY: Arrive in Lynchburg for two days of fun and frivolity!

Tour of Point of Honor

One of the oldest houses in Lynchburg, this 1815 Federal style home is decorated for the holidays in the style of the period. Our knowledgeable docents will give insight into how life was lived for ALL who resided in the home and how Dr. George Cabell practiced the art of medicine during at that time.

Check-in to your hotel to refresh for the evening's activities.

Dinner at Shakers Restaurant

A long standing Lynchburg dining favorite, Shakers Restaurant serves up American comfort fare.

Virginia Christmas Spectacular at Thomas Road Baptist Church

Enjoy the heartwarming story – Time for Christmas. The Von Clausen family has owned Timepiece Toys for generations and Chris has come home for the holidays, only to find the family's toy factory in chaos. Will his plans to "modernize" the factory lead to productivity or pandemonium? Or will he rediscover the value of time invested in others? You'll not want to miss this production filled with inspiring music, beautiful Nativity, stunning costumes, and hundreds of musicians, dancers and performers.

Return to your hotel for a restful night with visions of sugar plums dancing in your head.

SATURDAY: Good Morning! Dress in your most festive sweater and head down to breakfast at your hotel.

Shopping!

The Hill City takes to heart buying local and supporting our artisans. The Lynchburg Community Market and Downtown boutiques will be open and ready for you to enjoy some last minute shopping for that perfect gift for your family and friends, and maybe even a little something for yourself!

Lunch at Depot Grille

Converted from Lynchburg's own freight train station, "The Depot" offers a wide variety of menu items from crab dip to fall off the bone pork ribs, from juicy burgers to extra large salads.

Saturday continued...

Matinee of The Nutcracker at the Historic Academy of Music Theatre

Sweeten your holiday season as you travel on an enchanted journey with Clara and her magical Nutcracker doll through the lands of snowflakes and confections. The Lynchburg Symphony Orchestra will accompany the Charlottesville Ballet as they perform the timeless Christmas classic, The Nutcracker, in the beautiful grand dame theatre of the Academy Center of the Arts in Downtown Lynchburg.

Return to hotel to refresh and drop off your purchases

Poplar Forest Holiday Candlelight Tour

Celebrate the advent of the Christmas season in pure Jeffersonian style with a magical tour of our third president's cherished hideaway. Poplar Forest will be festively decorated for the holidays, as was the custom in his day. Docents will lead you by candlelight through the home sharing true stories and anecdotes gathered from Jefferson's letters and diaries, painting an intimate portrait of the Jefferson family celebration and the Christmas experience in the slave quarter.

Dinner at Charley's Restaurant

Once part of the Charley's restaurant chain opened by retired Pittsburgh Pirates player, Charley Sands, this Lynchburg eatery offers a variety of pasta dishes, tasty sandwiches and homemade soups.

Return to your hotel for a restful night with visions of sugar plums dancing in your head.

SUNDAY: Thank you for letting us celebrate the season with you!
